

Spelling mix-ups

they're, their, there

They're putting their coats over there!

They are

The coat belongs to them

Where the coats are placed

Select the correct spelling and meaning.

1. I cannot take you their/there on Tuesday!
2. They're/there wearing silly hats on their/there heads.
3. The kids kicked the ball over there/their!
4. They're/their dog was barking in the yard.
5. Their/they're parking their/there car over they're/there.
6. The twins had pie for their/they're dinner.

For more information please visit phonicbooks.com